Times Telecom now offers 3-year free long distance to new Bell Mobility customers

New Bell Mobility customers can now get free long distance for the entire duration of their 3 years contract with savings over $2,400, exclusive to Times Telecom.

RICHMOND, BC August 8, 2011 – A leading multi-ethnic long distance company, Times Telecom Inc. (the “Company”) (TSX VENTURE: TTT) is now offering free long distance for 3 years with new phone activations. This is instantly given to new customers activating any Bell Mobility or Solo Mobile product on a 3-year plan, starting August 1st and ends on November 30th 2011.

Customers can have up to 228 long distance minutes every month from their mobile phone, for the entire length of their Bell or Solo agreement. With Times Telecom’s long-standing leadership in the communications industry, customers can call for free to 28 countries such as Canada, USA, China, Hong Kong, Singapore, Thailand, India, Philippines, Taiwan, Argentina, Croatia, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Jordan, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Turkey and UK from their mobile phone. Moreover, they can call beyond their free minutes with the best rate ever. Together with value plans from the best network in Canada, the best mobile phone deals are now available to the Canadian market through Times Telecom.

Times Telecom increases the savings of their new customers to more than $2,400+. “This is an offer they cannot find elsewhere in the market, it is exclusive to Times Telecom. We would like to give consumers more opportunities to save with us”, says President, Terry Bahar. “We are committed to providing consumers with better mobility choices, and the best value for their money.”
